Meeting Started At 18:00 Hrs

- Call to Order
- Roll Call
- Treasury Report: We have $6769.34 in total, $126.55 in expenses, and a deposit of $25. New checks were ordered.
- Approval of minutes: opened for motion. Motion made by L.F. Seconded by S.Y.

New business

- Training: Caleb is hosting 3 boat operator safety courses this spring. You must sign up online. Long leaf Wilderness medicine first aid class April 13th – 14th. There is up to 30 open spots. Training committee meeting Thursday March 28th.

- Tracking class update: There is too much snow and we will reschedule during our training committee meeting this week.
- Facebook Page: BSDRT is the only public safety group in the county without a Facebook page. The comments will need approval to be seen or will be shut off entirely. Tony and Levi will be the admins. Opened for motion. Motion made by B.C. Seconded by B.N.
- Fundraiser Ideas: We need new snowmobiles and the easiest way to get them is through fundraisers. We are planning on doing a golf fundraiser after the fair, but we need prizes. Also we should get a booth at the fair in the pavilion and raffle off a gun. There is also the possibility of a cookoff during the “Kootenai River Days”. We are also going to apply for some grants through TransCanada and BNSF. We could also start a GoFundMe.
- Inventory: Inventory is scheduled for Saturday April 6th at 09:00.

Old Business

- SOP And Auxiliary member Drafts: Both were tabled last meeting and left on table for next meeting.
